

Dining Out

How To Get Started:

1. Chose a local, fairly inexpensive, and accessible restaurant to work with that holds frequently holds fundraisers.
 - a. Keep in mind dietary accommodations.
2. Reach out to the restaurant to confirm partnership, as well as a date and time frame to hold the fundraiser.
3. Determine how funds will be split between the restaurant and your profits for donation.
 - a. Many restaurants may have a set percentage already in mind.
4. Create flyers - virtual and physical - to send out and share, as well as promote on social media.
 - a. Encourage recipients to share with even more peers.
5. Make sure to tell diners to mention the Nehemiah fundraiser when ordering to ensure donations are made.

Additional Tips:

- Pick a location that gets lots of traffic for maximum attendance
- Encourage people to form groups and make it an event!
 - Ex: a girls night out for dinner or a sports team bonding meal
- Have a donation bucket on site
- Have some volunteers passing out info on Nehemiah at the door, remind people to mention the organization at the checkout
- Thank people for supporting Nehemiah after the event
