

BLACK HISTORY FOR A NEW DAY

JUSTIFIED ANGER

VIRTUAL COURSE

Feb 7- Apr 11

2022

Independent Groups

Take your group or organization through this transformational education experience.

INFORMATIONAL SESSIONS

December 7th 3-4pm

December 15th 4-5pm

January 4th 3-4 pm

Our purpose is to understand how the African-American experience has shaped the world we all live in, and how allies can find roles supporting racial justice today. Rooting ourselves in our history, and understanding how we got here, will help us move forward together to make a better world and a stronger local community.

- 9 Week Course
- Weekly Lecture + Group Discussion
- 2 Weekly Consecutive Hours
- Minimum 5 people per group
- Bonus 3 Week Next Steps Sessions

WHAT YOU GET

- Online Course Portal:
 - Online Lecture Videos
 - Lecture Slides (for facilitators and participants)
 - Supplemental Materials and Resources
- Weekly Office Hours with Justified Anger Staff
- End of Course 'Potluck' (Debrief and Social Connection)
- Free Next Steps Series (Includes Action Plan Session)

FACILITATION DETAILS

- If multiple lecture/discussion sections are needed, they can meet at different times during the week instead of all at once.
- Reach out to Nehemiah for help forming BIPoC and gender affinity groups.
- Facilitators will have access to training, discussion questions, facilitator guide, and tech guide. You will need your own group viewing platform (such as Zoom, Teams, Google Meetings)
- Group Facilitation Needed (one person can assume multiple roles):
 - 1 Facilitator per 10 participants
 - 1 Point Person
 - 1 Tech Person
 - 1 training (1.5 hours)